Program Highlights

The curriculum will support all areas of each child's development.

The children will be learning about technology, music, and participating in interesting math and science activities. Activities may include building rockets, learning about insects and their habitats, learning how to build and program a robot.

There will be numerous opportunities for creative art projects.

Registration will open on March 1 via our website foothillcfs.org/seedling.

Please contact Patty Fernandez at pfernandez@foothillcfs.org if you have any questions.
